

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

EXASPERATING, EITHER WAY

When Your Neighbor Cuts His Lawn First, It'll Peeve You—
But, Wait Four or Five Days Then Cut Yours!

THERE ARE MOMENTS WHEN WE ARE LED TO BELIEVE THE HUMAN RACE HASN'T IMPROVED ITS CONDITION MUCH IN THE LAST 40,000 YEARS

FLUNKING THE PRIMARY CLASS

THE MODERN PAUL REVERE

JUST ANOTHER "PUNITIVE EXPEDITION"

Philadelphia Ledger

THE OLD STONECUTTER

Brooklyn Eagle

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accident and Building in Three Counties

New London County

SHUNOC

Officers Elected by Second Baptist Sunday School—Meeting of Improvement Society.

Herman C. Maine, who died at his home at Old Mystic Tuesday, was a former resident of this town.

Henry C. Green, who died at his home in Westerly Tuesday evening, was a former resident of this town and at one time was town clerk. His widow was a daughter of the late Stephen Maine of North Stonington.

Sunday School Election.

The Sunday school connected with the Second Baptist church has elected officers for the ensuing year. They are: Superintendent, Miss F. A. York; assistant superintendent, Mrs. Arthur E. Babcock; second assistant superintendent, Mrs. William F. Morgan; secretary and treasurer, Miss Anna Merrill; assistant secretary and treasurer, Miss Beatrice M. Maine; librarian, William F. Morgan; assistant librarian, Arthur Babcock; organist, Miss Nellie Vincent; assistant organist, Mrs. William F. Morgan.

Improvement Society Meets.

The Shunoc Improvement society held a meeting Thursday evening at the home of Lewis F. Maine. Many attended and after the business meeting, games, music and singing were much enjoyed. A fine collation was served.

Rev. S. M. Cathcart of Westerly spoke in the church here last Sunday to a large audience.

Dr. A. B. Maine, who has been ill for some time, is much improved.

Rev. Lucian Drury of North Stonington will preach in the Shunoc church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Bertha Leigh has been visiting friends at Derby.

LEDYARD

Young People Surprise Pastor by Hanging Him a May Basket—Ladies' Guild Meets.

About 25 young people gave Rev. G. F. Goodenough a surprise Thursday night, hanging him a large May basket filled with fruit, cake, candy, etc. Rev. Mr. Goodenough caught them all and they assembled in the house, where all enjoyed the evening.

Missionary Meeting.

A missionary meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. William I. Allen Thursday afternoon. A good number was present.

Mrs. James A. Billings, wife of the late Judge Billings, has returned to Ledyard to stay this summer with Mr. and Mrs. William I. Allen.

Visit from Former Pastor.

Rev. W. F. White of Old Saybrook was a guest at Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gray's Wednesday night.

Miss Florence Geer was a caller in New London Wednesday.

The trustees of the estate of the late John J. Newton was a business call in town Friday.

Mrs. Daniel Gore and Mrs. John Tranklin of Norwich visited their sister, Mrs. Abbie Murray, Wednesday.

The Ladies' guild of Poqueanuck met with Mrs. Arthur D. Barrett on Thursday afternoon.

Charles H. Chapman has been appointed administrator on the estate of Mary E. Chapman, late of Ledyard.

NORTH LYME

Death of Mrs. Emily Myers Preceded That of Dan Rand—Stark House Renovated.

Mrs. Katie Jewett of New London visited at C. F. Jewett's the first of the week.

Mrs. J. Stark, Miss Emily Stark, N. Stark and family attended a business trip to Norwich Monday.

For each disease there are a dozen cures, that's all.

LEBANON

Athletic Club's Ball Team to Play Columbia Today—Grange Confers Degrees—Local People at Hebron Auction.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spencer of Boston spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. L. Spencer.

Miss Ella P. Peck of Hartford spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Hulda M. Peck at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Geer.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron J. Hoxie entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Clark and son, Leslie, of Liberty Hill.

Charles Abell of New Britain spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Abell.

Miss Gwendolyn Clarke of Liberty Hill spent Sunday with friends at C. J. Abell's.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith of Willimantic were visitors Monday at L. P. Smith's.

Benjamin York of Groton visited his son, Benjamin York, Jr., recently.

Shingle Wore Well.

C. S. Goodwin, while tearing off shingles at the residence of Miss Hattie Hewitt, found a white cedar shingle which was laid by William Taylor on April 28, 1876. The shingle was in perfect condition after being exposed to the weather for 40 years.

Buy Farm.

James Wells of South Canterbury has purchased the Peter Keiser farm and with his family will soon move there.

To Play Columbia.

The Lebanon Athletic club organized their ball team recently. Last Saturday they met on the Lebanon field for practice. Today (Saturday) the Lebanon team expects to go to Columbia to play the first game of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sweet and child are visiting Mrs. Mary Sweet.

Mrs. George Whipple and son, Everett Whipple of Voluntown and Mrs. Chapman of Norwich were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Colburn Sunday.

C. H. Barber is in Plainfield for a few days.

quests two friends from South Farmington, where she is a teacher.

Rev. Hollis A. Campbell, Mrs. Sans Throop, Miss Hattie Hewitt and Mrs. Henry Hewitt attended the Congregational convention held at Mystic on Tuesday.

Conferred Degrees.

Lebanon grange met Thursday night and conferred the third and fourth degrees on the following candidates, Miss Mae Fischer, Arthur Randall, Arthur Lathrop, Andrew Lathrop, Royce McCall, Eddie McCall and Ray Ounderdunk. Supper was served.

At Social Corner Picnic.

The following attended the Social Corner picnic at Willimantic Wednesday: Misses Addie Hallen, Mary Standish, Mrs. Clark Standish, Mrs. C. S. Goodwin, Mrs. Myron Peckham and daughter, Ella, Mrs. Fred Burgess, Mrs. Ned Burgess and little son, Donald, Mrs. Silas Burgess and daughter, Ruth and Gladys, Mrs. Robert Lillie and daughter, Lillie, Miss Arlene and Mrs. John Phillips.

Surprised on Birthday.

A birthday surprise party was given Mrs. E. L. Siminowitz at her home Sunday evening. A large number of friends and neighbors were present and an enjoyable evening was spent. Cake, coffee, ice cream and fruit were served.

James Warren Gray and Louis Jones of New London spent Sunday at the Jones cottage.

James Clark and Nathan Darling were callers in Colchester Tuesday.

Teachers' Meeting.

Superintendent J. A. Young of Colchester held a teachers' meeting in the Central school Thursday afternoon. The school board met for its monthly meeting Thursday evening.

William Kingley was in Norwich Tuesday.

SALEM

The Week's Visitors—Birthday Surprise Party—Supervisor Young Holds Teachers' Meeting.

Rev. Theodore Bachelor of New Haven preached in the Congregational church Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. Lemuel W. Frink of Norwich will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning.

Henry Tisdale of New London spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday at his bungalow in town.

James Beebe, Ernest Spencer, Sherwood Miner and Gilbert J. Murray were Norwich visitors Saturday.

Charles Brooks and family of Watertown were callers in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Beebe spent Sunday with relatives on Grassy Hill.

Samuel Prentiss of New London enjoyed a fishing trip in town Saturday.

Prof. Hiram Bingham of New Haven was in town the first of the week.

Surprised on Birthday.

A birthday surprise party was given Mrs. E. L. Siminowitz at her home Sunday evening. A large number of friends and neighbors were present and an enjoyable evening was spent. Cake, coffee, ice cream and fruit were served.

James Warren Gray and Louis Jones of New London spent Sunday at the Jones cottage.

James Clark and Nathan Darling were callers in Colchester Tuesday.

Teachers' Meeting.

Superintendent J. A. Young of Colchester held a teachers' meeting in the Central school Thursday afternoon. The school board met for its monthly meeting Thursday evening.

William Kingley was in Norwich Tuesday.

NORTH FRANKLIN

Mrs. Frank Case of New London is visiting Mrs. Grace Peckham.

Mrs. Imogene Arnold of Willimantic spent Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. Reuben Manning.

Mrs. Frank Rockwood and daughter, Florence, Mrs. A. T. Browning and Mrs. Fred Case attended the Social Corner gathering at Willimantic Wednesday.

Mrs. Caldwell has come from abroad to spend the summer with her son, James Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert White and family called on relatives in Chaplin and Windham Sunday.

George Conner of Jewett City spent Sunday with his daughter, Miss Helen Conner.

Mrs. James Randall of Goshen spent Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Reuben Manning.

Mrs. T. Little of Willimantic was the guest Wednesday of Mrs. Byron White, Descon William Smith and Mrs.

Smith entertained Sunday the Rev. Mr. Childs of Griswold.

Mrs. Earl Rogers and daughter Barbara are spending a few days with Mrs. Elizabeth Rogers of Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burgess and son Donald, of Lebanon, were Sunday visitors at Byron White's.

Mrs. T. H. Ward was in Yantic Sunday, calling on her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Manning.

HANOVER

About 180 Served Dinner During Wednesday's Conference of Six Churches.

The conference of six churches met here Wednesday in a morning and afternoon session. Rev. Dr. R. H. Potter of Hartford preached the sermon and as usual made a deep impression on his audience. About 180 were served during the dinner hour, by the ladies of the parish. In the afternoon the theme "The Country Church and the Community" was taken up by Rev. G. H. Ewing, Rev. Albert Donnell and Rev. Arthur Burwick. Special music was furnished by the choir, assisted by Mrs. F. G. Way.

Going to Norwich Meeting.

A Norwich union C. E. meeting to be held at Norwich Town Sunday evening will be attended by members of this society. Miss Calder of Boston will give the address.

Otis Fairbank of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crips Sunday.

Arthur Croft, of Fort Wright, visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Croft for the week-end.

GLASCO

Herbert Wilde is working in Lawrence, Mass., and will soon move his household goods and family to that city.

Thomas Shaw and family leave the village today (Saturday) for Montville, where Mr. Shaw has obtained work.

Mr. Hanlon takes the place of Mr. Wilde as machinist.

Ralph Wilbur is spending a few days at his home, from high school in Willimantic.

Mrs. Sarah Gulliver of Norwich town was a Sunday guest of Mrs. W. G. Burdick, returning home Monday.

Mrs. Ida Eccleston and Mary Edgcomb were in Norwich Wednesday.

The next meeting of the Ladies Aid society will be at the home of Mrs. Albert Green. The ladies at that meeting will tie a quilt.

Mrs. Otto Anderson does not improve after leaving the sanatorium. She has been ill with tuberculosis nearly a year.

LISBON

Young People Cleanup the Church Green and Set Out Trees.

The pastor's theme Sunday morning was Communion. The text, Luke 22:19. This do in remembrance of Me. At the communion service, one new member, Mildred Farnow, was received on confession of faith.

Rev. W. J. Reynolds with three delegates, Mrs. R. T. Read, Mrs. E. W. Corbett and Mrs. F. E. Hyde, attended the meeting of the New London Association in Mystic, Tuesday.

Cleaned Up the Green.

Saturday afternoon a number of the young people met to clean up the church green and set out several trees. The work completed, they gathered at the parsonage for supper and a social hour.

Mrs. J. H. Kennedy returned Wednesday from a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. Brainard Walden, in Willimantic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Read visited Sunday with Victor Campbell's family in Pachau.

Several from here attended the conference of churches at Hanover, Wednesday.

BOZRAH

Dr. Edward G. Fox, Mrs. Fox and son, Kenneth Fox, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lathrop.

Mrs. James Lathrop and daughter came home Wednesday from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Dickenson and Mrs. George Smith were given the right hand of fellowship in the Congregational church, and Miss Eleanor Cole, on confession of faith, united with the church, last Sunday.

The Christian Endeavorers met at the parsonage Wednesday evening. They held a business meeting and talked over plans for the good of the society for the coming year.

HAMBURG

A Mothers' Day program was given at Lyme grange May 14th. White carnations were distributed. Visitors were present from Waterford grange. A class is to be given the first and second degrees at the next meeting.

C. H. Havens spent Sunday with his uncle, Lyman Harding last week.

The E. F. L. met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Crick.

The R. F. D. is to be served by automobile after May 11th.

The musical given by Mr. Bill, a blind man, was well attended at the public hall last Friday evening. A dance followed the entertainment.

Argentina has 29,500,000 cattle and 9,700,000 horses.